HIGHLIGHTS

NOTE: This is a draft version of the July 16, 2020 Community Engagement and Education Committee (CEEC) Meeting Minutes which is subject to change. The final version will be approved at the meeting on August 20, 2020.

The Washington, D.C. Regional Planning Commission on Health and HIV (COHAH) will invigorate planning for HIV prevention and care programs that will demonstrate effectiveness, innovation, accountability, and responsiveness to our community.

Call to Order Review and Adoption of the Agenda Review and Aloption of the Agenda Review and Approval of the Minutes Review and Approval of the Minutes Review and Confirm CEEC Workplan for 2020 Reschedule Maryland CLS Jenné indicated that the ball was dropped on advertising the Maryland CLS. It was to be an Open Group Session; therefore, advertising was imperative. Jenné will create a flyer to use in Eventbrite and post all information in Basecamp. She also encouraged committee members to share it with their own networks once the flyer is created. CLS Contingency Plan Debriefing CLS Contingency Plan Debriefing Announcements and Adjournment Discourse Agenda for July 16, 2020 as a motion. Jené will create a flyer to use in Eventbrite and post all information in Basecamp. She also encouraged committee members to share it with their own networks once the flyer is created. Antonio asked if changing the dates for the CLS would affect their ability to offer gift cards. Jenné indicated that the grant that supported the incentives had been extended, and therefore, would not affect their ability to offer the gift cards. Plan Virginia Group Sessions There were no suggestions for groups in Virginia. Sharon C. had indicated that she would speak with Gerald Padmore however, she was not present to report. Derrick C. indicated that the would contact Gerald P. Jenné also announced that George Washington University is conducting quantitative interviews with black men (gay, bisexual, MSM, ages 15-34) who have recently had HIV testing or screening and tested negative to measure their experiences with testing and PrEP in the DMV area. There are several slots left. Fifty-dollar ($$50) gift cards are

Approval of the Minutes Quorum was not established to approve the CEEC Minutes for May 21, 2020. Jenné briefly discussed the effects the COVID-19 closures and ordinances have had on some of the activities listed in the CEEC work plan. However, there has not been a need to change anything in the plan except the adjustments to the Community Listening Sessions (CLS), (i.e. sessions moved from being at physical locations to virtual interactions). Reschedule Maryland CLS Jenné indicated that the ball was dropped on advertising the Maryland CLS. It was to be an Open Group Session; therefore, advertising was imperative.
